

STUDENT FEES REFUND

- The University will not refund tuition fees where students discontinue or intermit from a course and/or withdraw from unit(s) after the final enrolment date, except where special circumstances apply.

FULL REFUND OF TUITION FEES

A full refund of tuition fees paid for current and future teaching periods will be made where:

- The University is unable to deliver the course offered, the course has not commenced, or the student does not accept an alternative course offer.
- The University withdraws an offer for placement in a course prior to the student's commencement in the course. If an offer is withdrawn on the basis of incorrect or incomplete information supplied as part of the student's application, the University reserves the right to retain 10 percent of the first semester's tuition fees.
- The student is unable to meet a condition required by the University in the letter of offer.
- The student is excluded by the University for failure to meet academic progression requirements and had paid fees in advance of a notification of exclusion.
- The student is refused a visa. However, no refund will be made if the visa is refused on the grounds of the student not meeting the attendance or academic performance requirements set by the Malaysian government, or where the student is in breach of visa conditions stipulated by the Malaysian government.
- Illness or disability prior to the commencement of the course prevents the student from commencing the course.
- The death of a close family member (parent, carer, sibling, spouse or child) occurs prior to the commencement of the course, preventing the student from commencing the course; or at the discretion of the Group Chief Financial Officer where other special or extenuating personal circumstances prevent the student from commencing in the course.

Documentary evidence must be provided in support of an application for a full refund made under section above

PARTIAL REFUND OF TUITION FEES

A partial refund of tuition fees paid for the current teaching period may be made to students for reasons other than those outlined in section above as follows:
